Work über coveted looks offset against haute bijoux
accessories flaunted on the catwalks of Fall/Winter 2012

THE LOOK OF MICHAEL KORS

Evoke the notion of a rustic-luxe cabin in the woods in winter: offset Dick Page's dramatic, pinched flush from cheekbone to jawline with a Michael Kors Espresso Tone Link Turnlock Necklace—the ultime couture glamping formula that Kors has down cold.

THE LOOK OF EMPORIO ARMANI

Channel Brigitte Bardot with the graphic ombré cat-eye in ra-ra red Tim Quinn slicked onto the girls, paired immaculately with Emporio Armani's equally funky-chunky cubic necklace and earrings for a structured mod-chic jive.

THE LOOK OF VERSACE

Rock the ramped-up goth look at Versace, an inimitable juxtaposition of Pat McGrath's cool sepulchral smoky eyes with a soft winged shape through the socket, given a femme twist with Versace's opulent-riche Medusa head Greca ring and gold metal bracelet.

THE LOOK OF GUCCI

Conjure the look Daria Strokous flashed on the runway at Gucci—don Gucci's darkly romantic, 19th century decadent Pendent Drop Earrings and set it to pop like a dream against Pat McGrath's vampy, goth pout and bleached brows du jour.
