

FLOAT AWAY

BE URBAN WELLNESS |

beurbanwellness.com

Be Urban Wellness is, by itself, a super luxe urban haven (tucked away in Damansara Heights) for getting away from it all—an infinity pool with a view of the city skyline, a plush gym and yoga space, steam rooms and Jacuzzis galore. What really sets it apart are the space-age treatments they offer: being cocooned in an oxygen chamber and sleeping while afloat in a tank of salty water is totally meditative and deeply therapeutic for the body and mind. Very Barbarella-esque, circa now.

Oxygen Chamber & Floatation Tank | 60 MINUTES & 90 MINUTES, RM220 & RM300

ARABIAN NIGHTS

HAMMAM SPA | hammamspas.com

This one is a lunch hour quickie where you can pop into Hammam, really surrender yourself to the Moroccan ladies at the spa and be ready to be scrubbed CLEAN. They leave nothing behind, and as scary as it may sound, it's a nice, vigorous deep cleanse you could never do yourself. You'll feel like you've teleported to Abu Dhabi, albeit in disposable undies, exfoliated with Moroccan black soap from head to toe (and beyond), wrapped in a Moorish pure volcanic clay base and given a swish aromatic massage for serious peace out time.

HAIR ZEN

AVEDA AT RESTYLE+ | acutabove.com.my/salon_restyleplus.html

Aveda's Botanical hair ritual is unlike any other, for two reasons: one, Aveda's holistic, Ayurvedic Botanical hair treatments use all natural organic essential oils to address your hair issues, be it thinning, damage or hydration, and two, the whole Renewal ritual of a neck and shoulder massage, green tea, and taking big stress-busting whiffs of their blue therapy oil, lets you really zen out. That, plus the woody, green ambience at Restyle+, is super peace-invoking.

Botanical Scalp & Hair Therapy | 45 MINUTES, from RM250

OHM TIME

SPA VILLAGE, THE RITZ CARLTON KL |

spavillage.com/kualalumpur

Take a day off (and we do mean OFF, from work strain, screaming kids, incompetent maids, the whole shebang) and head to the Ritz. You'll be squirreled away in an opulent spa room, but shopping at Pavilion and Starhill are just a road-cross away. This ethereally unique experience takes place in a Sensory Room, with supremely meditative sounds, smells, tastes and textures. The treatment includes aromatherapy, tasting, vibration, ancient sensory relaxation and a scalp massage.

KHAREYANA SPA |

www.khareyana.com

Hidden away in a bungalow near PJ Old Town, with serene, lush pond-stone-tree surrounds and a history that precedes itself, the masseuses here are expertly trained in Balinese massage techniques, which is why their Hand & Foot Spa treatment is so immersive. Get a luscious soak, a mani pedi of the most exotic, tropical kind, a lush massage to buff away calluses and rough skin with aromatherapy oils rubbed in, then (slowly) sip ginger tea at their Jamu bar.
